

NEWS

Congratulations to our two new Associates

September 15, 2017

Following their articling year and recent admissions to the Alberta Bar, we are pleased to welcome Anne Rupcich and Randolph (Randy) Mitchell to our firm.

Anne Rupcich earned a combined undergraduate degree in English and Law & Society at the University of Calgary before earning her LL.B. from the University of Alberta. Anne joins our Personal Injury group, assisting clients involved in motor vehicle accidents, slip and fall injuries, and other personal injury matters.

Randy Mitchell also earned a combined undergraduate degree from the University of Calgary in History and Political Science before earning his J.D. Randy joins our Litigation & Dispute Resolution group, assisting clients in various legal disputes.