McLeod Law Welcomes New Partners

January 5, 2021

We are pleased to announce the appointment of Layne Thiessen and Spencer Chimuk to the McLeod Law partnership. Layne and Spencer have established themselves as exceptional litigation lawyers.

Layne is dedicated to the area of Estate Litigation, helping clients to resolve will or estate-related disputes. He provides legal guidance and represents clients that include estate beneficiaries, adult interdependent partners, dependents, and personal representatives and trustees who live in Alberta, or who live abroad and have interests in Alberta.

Spencer is a valued member of our Commercial Litigation group where he helps businesses and individuals with disputes involving contracts, employment law, shareholder agreements and construction matters.
